

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

At Charleston

A PROCLAMATION

By the Governor

WHEREAS, the National Weather Service and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration predict a major storm event is imminent in all fifty-five counties of West Virginia, and will commence on the fourth day of March, Two Thousand Fifteen; and

WHEREAS, the major storm event is expected to produce substantial rainfall and snowfall Statewide, as well as extraordinary winds in higher elevations; and

WHEREAS, the forecasted rainfall and snowfall has the potential to cause, among other things, flooding in West Virginia's rivers, streams, and creeks; dangerous driving conditions; power outages and downed electrical lines; and the toppling of trees.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, EARL RAY TOMBLIN, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of West Virginia, and in view of the foregoing, do hereby FIND AND DECLARE that a natural disaster or large-scale threat of major proportions may be imminent, necessitating a State of Preparedness in all fifty-five counties of West Virginia. I therefore INVOKE the emergency powers set forth in section six, article five, chapter fifteen of the Code of West Virginia, ACTIVATE the Emergency Operations Center and Emergency Operations Plan, and ORDER appropriate personnel and resources, including but not limited to the West Virginia National Guard, to mobilize and prepare for the imminent emergency. Further, I hereby DIRECT the inhabitants of this State to prepare for the imminent emergency by, among other things, ensuring they have sufficient food and water for at least forty-eight hours, together with blankets, flashlights, and contingency plans in case of flooding or electrical outages.

Finally, I hereby ORDER that it is unlawful for any person, business, or other entity to sell any food items, essential consumer items, emergency supplies, or home heating oil in a manner that violates the provisions of section three, article six J, chapter forty-six A of the Code of West Virginia.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

DONE at the Capitol, in the City of Charleston,
State of West Virginia, this the third of March,
in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Fifteen,
in the One Hundred Fifty-Second year of the State.

GOVERNOR

By the State

SECRETARY OF STATE